

Optimized holding rails

Referring to the ILLIG Cleantivity[®] we can offer an improvement for a clean production with increased quality time. The drillings in the holding rails will be reduced from five to three drill holes. Thereby we can reduce particles on the guide rail and we can ensure the production of high forming part quality.

Your benefits

- | Less material particles on the foil
- | High quality thermoformed parts
- | Minimization of scrap

Available for machines

RDK90 | RDK80k | RDKP72k | RDK54k | RV74d | RD74d

